

Prof. Dr. med. Tobias B. Huber, MD

Associate Professor of Medicine, Attending Physician
Emmy Noether group Leader
Associated Member, Center for Biological Signalling Studies (bioss)
Principle Investigator, Spemann Graduate School-Freiburg
Coordinator of the BMBF consortium NephAge

Education

1978 - 1982	Primary school
1982 - 1991	High school, final exam: Abitur
1991- 1992	Community Service (Zivildienst)
1992 - 1999	Medical School, Universities Freiburg, Vienna and Tampa (USA)

Scientific education and professional experience

1995-1996	MD thesis with Prof. Dr. Greger & Prof. Dr. H. Pavenstädt, Institute of Physiology, University Freiburg (summa cum laude)
1999-2001	Residency, Division of Nephrology, University Hospital Freiburg
2001-2003	Fellow in Medicine, Division of Nephrology, University Hospital Freiburg
2003-2006	Postdoctoral Fellow, Immunology & Pathology, Washington University St. Louis, MO (Laboratory of Dr. Andrey Shaw)
2005	Full USMLE Medical certification
since 2006	Emmy Noether Group leader, Division of Nephrology, University Hospital Freiburg
2007	Habilitation (Venia legendi), University Freiburg
2008	German Board Certification for Internal Medicine
since 2008	Attending Physician, Division of Nephrology, University Hospital Freiburg
since 2010	Associate Professor of Medicine (APL-Professor)
2010	Invitation (Ruf) as Full Professor (W3) at the Department of Nephrology, University of Münster

Scientific honors

1998	Scholarship for the Internship at the University of South Florida (USF), USA
2002	Young Nephrologist Award of the German Renal Society (Nierenstiftung)
2003	Emmy fellowship of the German Research Foundation
2004	Carl Ludwig Award (Young Investigator Award of the German Renal Society)
2006	Emmy Noether Group Leader of the German Research Foundation (DFG)
2007	Elected DFG Fellow for the Nobel Laureate Meeting in Lindau
2009	Hans U. Zollinger Research Award of German Renal Society
2010	Franz Volhard Award of German Renal Society